

I strongly oppose any change to the Indiana telephone privacy law, and do not want to see it modified or weakened in any way. This includes prohibition against the chages sought by banking organizations.